

IMPLEMENTATION OF DOMESTIC ABUSE POLICY

2.0 INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 In February 2018, the Domestic Abuse (Scotland) Act was passed, which initiated a review of the Council's position on Domestic Abuse and what support was available for its employees.
- 2.2 Following the implementation of the Wellbeing Agenda and the creation of a new Wellbeing Team, this review was finalised and the Domestic Abuse Policy was consulted on and completed. In developing the policy, it is noted that the particular circumstances of Covid-19 have resulted in an escalation of domestic abuse.
- 2.3 The policy is presented today to Policy and Resources Committee for consideration and approval.

3.0 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 3.1 That the Policy and Resources Committee approve the new Domestic Abuse Policy for onward transition to the Council.

4.0 DETAIL

- 4.1. The Domestic Abuse Policy sets out the Council's commitment to providing a safe and supportive working environment for those affected by domestic abuse. The policy document is attached at Appendix 1.
- 4.2 The aims of the policy are to:

Clearly state that the Council believes everyone has the right to live free from domestic abuse and that domestic abuse is unacceptable.

Emphasise that the Council is committed to supporting employees' health and wellbeing at work and recognises that domestic abuse affects people in all aspects of life, including the workplace.

Create an environment at work where employees feel safe to disclose their experience of abuse in order to access support and increased safety for themselves and others.

5.0 CONCLUSION

- 5.1 The new Domestic Abuse Policy sets out the Council's commitment to provide a safe and supportive environment at work for those who are being affected by, or who are risk from, domestic abuse or violence.
- 5.2 Given the escalation in cases during the current Covid 19 pandemic, it is recommended that this policy is implemented as soon as possible, in order to provide support for those currently affected by domestic abuse.
