

Management Committee

Date: 6 October 2022

Corporate Parenting Board - Nomination of Replacement Chair

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of this report is to request CPP Management Committee to confirm the responsibilities will be met and how we will improve the lives and outcomes for our care experienced children and young people, including care leavers.

Since the establishment of the Board the importance of working to ensure that every care experienced child has the care and support they need to thrive has been given ever greater emphasis with the publication of the Care Leavers Covenant in 2018, the National Care Review in 2020 and subsequently The

5.0 Conclusions

Takki Sulaiman is nominated by Argyll and Bute's Children Strategic Group as the new Chair of the Argyll and Bute Corporate Parenting Board. He has a personal commitment to improving the lives of care experienced children, can provide the leadership and challenge to Corporate Parents to deliver not only on their corporate parenting duties but also the Corporate Plan and to support the wider transformation of our care system and deliver on The Promise in Argyll and Bute.

6.0 Implications

Strategic Implications	Key role in contributing to delivery of strategic priorities for Outcome 4
Consultations, Previous considerations	Establishment of Board and appointment of chair by CPP agreed in 2013
Resources	None
Prevention	None
Equalities	None