

St Joseph's Public Consultation Meeting
St Joseph's Primary School
25 April 2023

Panel

Dg Hj Et

Question 3

Is the author's view on the Commission's work a positive one? Justify your answer.

Panel Response

The author's view on the Commission's work is positive. He states that the Commission has done a good job of its work since 2010.

Question 5

Is the author's view on the Commission's work a positive one? Justify your answer.

Panel Response

The author's view on the Commission's work is positive. He states that the Commission has done a good job of its work since 2010.

Question 6

By what means does the author suggest the Commission should improve its work?

Panel Response

The author suggests that the Commission should improve its work by being more transparent and by involving the public more in its work. He also mentions that the Commission should be more proactive in its work.

The author also suggests that the Commission should improve its work by being more transparent and by involving the public more in its work. He also mentions that the Commission should be more proactive in its work.

The author also suggests that the Commission should improve its work by being more transparent and by involving the public more in its work. He also mentions that the Commission should be more proactive in its work.

The author also suggests that the Commission should improve its work by being more transparent and by involving the public more in its work. He also mentions that the Commission should be more proactive in its work.