

Dear Fiona and to whom it may concern.

We write to contest the appeal by Melanie Andrews for a review of the restrictions imposed on the opening hours at Craigard Tearoom IV, 81 West Clyde Street, Helenburgh, G84 8BB.

The [redacted] that the planning department took a considered application and applied the restrictions to protect the living standards of those living in [redacted] to the business.

properties of 79 and 80 West Clyde

[redacted] street are unique in the town, in that the entrance to the properties are within a metre of the business entrance and cannot be compared to the numerous commercial premises that Mrs Andrews refers to in her appeal. There has been no material change to the buildings since the class 3, with restrictions was granted.
