

Argyll and Bute Community Planning Partnership

Full Partnership
Date: 9th

- Evaluate the governance and accountability arrangements put in place to support CPPs local economic development activity.
- Assess how well the CPPs planning activity supports the delivery of their agreed economic outcomes.
- Review how well CPPs manage resources to achieve their agreed economic outcomes.
- Assess the contribution CPPs are making to increase sustainable local economic growth.

3.5 Outputs and timetable

- Fieldwork and analysis: January – April 2011
- Report drafting, and clearance: May - August 2011
- Publication: September 2011

3.6 Responsibilities of partners

A number of partners are involved in economic development in Argyll and Bute. Argyll and Bute Council have the main responsibilities in terms of local economic development and regeneration including Business Gateway activity. HIE and Scottish Enterprise have the main role in terms of regional and national economic development, supporting high growth