Section 1: About the proposal

Title of Proposal
Review of care at home service support for people living in Bowman Court (independent tenancies) and patients receiving inpatient care at MICH (3 bedded in patient unit).
Intended outcome of proposal
Health & Social Care support is delivered as standard in line with HSCP Care at Home services and inpatient care reflects safe staffing levels.
Description of proposal
Bowman Court is a small complex of 12 homes managed by West Highland Housing Association, tenants with care needs are supported by internal Care at Home service . An overnight support service delivers support to people accessing respite (as required) and to the 3 bedded Mull & Iona Community Hospital.  The proposal is to review the service for good practice and ensuring the best use of resources. This also fits with the Patient Partnership Strategy review of all care at home.
